

Home science courses outcomes

home science comprise 5 basic subject, These include nutrition and dietetics, textile and clothing management, human development, art and design & family Resource Management. The subject of home science is connected to everyone human life and provide the knowledge necessary to make human life happy and prosperous. course outcomes and program outcomes for home science are following.

1) Nutrition -

A) student will be able to acquire knowledge about food and nutrition and improve the quality of their foods.

B) student will know the importance of Balanced diet is and hygiene and different concepts related to food and nutrition.

C) students will learn functions of Nutrition sources of nutrition and requirement of nutrient and no about deficiency of nutrient.

D) students will be able to know the concepts of good habit and different diseases and modified the normal diet and therapeutic purpose.

2) Textile and clothing -

A) unable the student to make proper choice of fabric.

B) to import knowledge regarding textile and clothing.

C) To import knowledge about dying printing and development skills of embroidery and encourage entrepreneurship.

D) To import creative and Technical skills including clothes construction.

E) to understand clothing needs wardrobe planning and selection of clothes of different age group.

F) to aware about clothing care and storage techniques.

3) Human development -

A) to study the meaning of course of Human Development.

B) to understand the nature of development pattern and importance of different stages of Human Development.

C) to study the meaning of scope of human development family Resource Management.

- A) to introduce the student field of home management.
- B,) to acquire knowledge about the family Resource Management.
- C) to understand the ability about how to make household budget.
- D) to develop the ability of improve their work within less time and fatigue.

4) Art and design -

- A) to develop skill in creative mind and develop art of judging and home Furnishing.
- B) to understand of the principles of designing and colour combination.
- C) to import creative and technical skills including construction.
- D) to import knowledge about dying, printing and development skills of embroidery and encourage entrepreneurship.
- E) to understand, clothing needs wardrobe planning and selection of clothes of different age group.
- F) to aware about clothing care and storage techniques.

5) Family Resources Management

- A) to introduce the students to the field of home management.
- B) to acquire knowledge about the family resource management.
- C) to understand the ability about how to make household budget.
- D) to develop the ability to improve their work within less time and fatigue.