This introduction is in context of the FDP (includes information relevant to the purpose of the FDP)

Dr. Bhalchandra Bhole retired as the Head, Department of Microbiology, Abasaheb Garware College, Pune in September 2017, after 37 years of teaching. He was the IQAC Coordinator of his college for 14 years, spearheading the efforts of his college to earn the 'A' grade twice through the 3 Cycles of NAAC accreditation of his college. He was awarded the 'Gunavant Shikshak Puraskar' for his contribution in institutional development throughout his college career.

It is his vast experience as a NAAC Coordinator and his interest in institutional development that laid the cornerstone of his post-retirement engagement as a resource person at Symposia and Conferences dealing with the subject of Institutional Quality Improvement processes. He has counseled individual Colleges, designed FDPs and Train the Trainer Workshops conducted through the intervention of the IQAC Cluster and RUSA Maharashtra. He has worked as Member of Review Committees for NAAC preparations of Universities and Colleges, an 'Expert Member' of the IQAC and is often invited by Colleges as a member for their Academic and Administrative Audit. He also has the experience as the Academic Ambassador under the UGC Paramarsh Scheme for the Kamala Nehru College, Delhi.

He is one of the founding members of the IQAC Cluster which works towards assisting HEIs in all areas for Quality Improvement and NAAC Accreditation. The IQAC Cluster has made great inroads across India and Maharashtra especially in assisting Colleges to come forward for NAAC accreditation and perform well.
